GRIMALDI'S PIZZERIA

With a tagline of, "The pizza that made the Brooklyn Bridge famous," Grimaldi's Pizzeria should top your list of must-go eateries. Backed by more than 100 years of authentic, pizza making tradition, Grimaldi's bakes its hand-tossed, coal-fired brick oven pizzas and calzones to perfection, with fresh ingredients, a crisp crust, and you-can't-find-this-anywhere-else flavor. No wonder Grimaldi's is the most award-winning pizzeria in the United States!

COMING IN APRIL!

WING BUCKET

Voted "Best Wings in Dallas" by the Dallas Observer, Wing Bucket opens its newest location at Hillside Village in April. This upbeat, fast-casual restaurant brings its jumbo sized gourmet chicken wings, tenders, and pork ribs to this side of town. You'll find an amazing variety of house-made savory sauces and dry rubs, including a pick-your-heat selection of buffalo flavors from Original (mild) to El Loco (very hot). Looking for out-of-the-ordinary wings? Try one of their popular signature flavors like Siracha Madness, Bourbon Bacon Bliss, Muay Thai or Mango Tango.

Not in the mood for wings? No problem! With tasty tenders, ribs, and sandwiches on the menu, you won't leave hungry. Add some made-fresh-daily sides to your order, like the must-try fried green beans, apple cider cole slaw, or cream corn. You want fries with that? Try their addictive lemon pepper fries, garlic parmesan fries or sweet potato fries.

With a motto of "Bigger and Better at the Bucket!," Wing Bucket offers the perfect place to grab an icy cold beverage (they've got a huge selection of beer on tap) and a bucket of your favorite wings while you chillax with friends.

RAZZOO'S CAJUN CAFÉ

Some call it Cajun (it really is), some call it Creole (technically, no—unless the dish originated in the city), but everyone can agree that Razzoo's is delicious! Their made-from-scratch-daily menu gives you an authentic taste of eating in N'awlins, and their quirky, fast-casual appeal will have you coming back for seconds.
