Take it Outside!

DINE AL FRESCO AT THE AMPLE PATIO SEATING SPRINKLED THROUGHOUT WATTERS CREEK SO YOU CAN LINGER OVER A MEAL AND SOAK UP THE FRESH-AIR AMBIANCE.

THE BLUE FISH

If you want a go-to sushi restaurant, head over to The Blue Fish, known for its amazing variety of fresh sushi and sashimi with a flair for creativity. From spectacular, signature rolls, like the salmon and coconut Hawaiian roll, to the party-in-your-mouth Ahi Tower, it's no wonder The Blue Fish has been winning awards for 16+ years.

"We always use the freshest ingredients," explains Inmo Kang, assistant manager. Kang also points out the great deals like regular happy hours, half-priced bottles of wine on Sundays, and $1 house sake on Thursdays.

Even if you're not a sushi fan, you'll find plenty of Asian-inspired dishes to tempt your taste buds. Try for fan favorites like the Kobe sizzler, crab pot stickers, or the melt-in-your-mouth Chilean Sea Bass.

Plus, the relaxing atmosphere gives a "trendy, neighborhood restaurant vibe." Act like a local and grab a table on the patio for some amazing outdoor views while you dine on the freshest, tastiest seafood you've had in a while.

CRÚ FOOD AND WINE BAR

Crú offers tasty little bites to share (tapas style), stone fired pizza, big plates (steaks, chicken and fish) and a very nice selection of cheeses. Bartenders are knowledgeable about the extensive wine selection. We enjoy ordering a flight of three two-ounce wines related by grape varietal, geographic region or style. Flights are a nice way to try something new without breaking the date night bank. Plus, they encourage lingering.

GRIMALDI'S

There was a time when you could only get Grimaldi's famous coal-fired brick oven pizza in New York. But that was then. Today, there are Grimaldi's almost everywhere, it seems. While the menu is somewhat basic (pizzas, calzones, salads), it's also consistent. But what we like about the Allen location is that it overlooks the little park at Watters Creek where live music is often played during warmer months.

MI COCINA

Whether you're in the mood for traditional Tex-Mex or authentic Mexican food, you can't go wrong at Mi Cocina, which serves up the best of both cuisines. Great chips, zippy salsa and friendly service are just the beginning. While the brisket tacos are legendary, and the Queso Blanco with Picadillo beef is the bomb, for the fitness minded, the housemade soups and hearty salads are also excellent. Tip: Grab a table on the patio, which overlooks the pond, and nosh on your enchiladas while taking in the gorgeous view.

VILLAGE BURGER BAR

This ain't your daddy's burger joint! When you taste their specialties, like the Champagne & Cheddar Burger, Florentine Panini, Goat Cheese Portabella Burger, or Truffle Fries, you'll become a regular here. And if you're craving your favorite standbys, like a Swiss 'Shroom Burger, Sweet Potato Fries, and cold root beer on tap, then VBB won't disappoint.

FIREWATER

Grab your friends (or your family) and bolt over for a quick lunch, leisurely dinner, or late-night snack. Catch a game on one of six HD big-screens or chill out on the patio for an open-air meal. From melts and flatbreads to sopes and tacos, you'll find something to please every palate, including a nice selection of local brews.

BRIO TUSCAN GRILLE

While Brio offers a delicious menu to suit many different needs or palates (gluten-free, children's, reduced calorie), it's their friendly, personalized service that really makes them stand out. Or as Brio likes to say, "You're not just a customer, you're considered part of the family."

THE LION & CROWN PUB

If you're experiencing Downton Abbey withdrawal (who isn't?), you'll get your fix at The Lion & Crown Pub. Enjoy classics such as Fish & Chips, Cottage Pie and Bangers & Mash but also some American twists like Pepperoni Flatbread. The cozy pub décor adds to the fun.

BONNIE RUTH'S BISTRO AND PATISSERIE

Can't get to Paris? Then get to Bonnie Ruth's, where you'll enjoy classic French bistro cuisine, music and a warm, inviting atmosphere. Menu favorites include Croque Monsieur with decadent béchamel sauce, Steak Frites and of course, Onion Soup Gratinée made with veal stock, caramelized onion and topped with melted Gruyere. Heavenly. And don't forget to swing by the adjacent patisserie to pick up some post-date deliciousness.

Life is Sweet

Ah, the joy of connecting with good friends over coffee. Moments like this remind you to slow down and enjoy life's simpler pleasures, like listening to birds chirping, feeling sunshine on your cheeks, or indulging in your favorite dessert. Even better—why not do all three in one place?

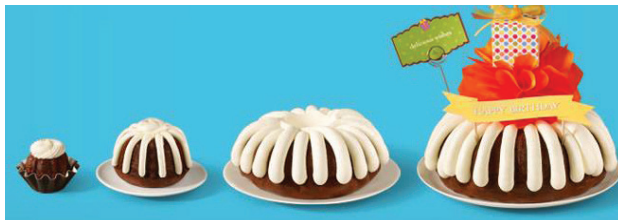

Watters Creek mixes up a batch of eateries with indoor seating and outdoor patios overlooking a luscious landscape—perfect for people-watching while enjoying a sweet treat, naturally. From coffees and cookies to crepes and candy, you'll find something for everyone—great for midday snacks, late-night bites, or take-home treats.
